A WHEELING freshman, Janie Neubauer, 1065 Kenil-worth, lived through a night of teror when she recently baby-saf for three boys. That night, she and a fun-loving girl friend entertained the children by playing pranks on them.

"We had fun scaring each other." Jan said. "Wa put the boys to bed at 11 and then used the Ouija board."

SHE ASKED the board what the telephone number of a certain boy was. Upon receiving an answer, she pranced down the stairs to look for a phone book that would in dicate whether the Ouljaboard had been right.

THE BOYS upstairs were complaining that Jan and her friend were turning door knobs and were clicking light switches on and off.

"We werant," Jan said, "but after a while we heard it, too. We were scared, and held for about an hour and a haif."
